

NEGATIVE SIDE WINS IN SUFFRAGE DEBATE

Victors in West Point Contest Will Go to Charlottesville to Meet
Other School Teams.

INTERESTING ANNOUNCEMENT
Miss Mary Garland Grasty, of Baltimore, Engaged to Wed. Dr. Roscoe R. Spencer, of West Point—Mr. and Mrs. Pilcher's Anniversary.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WEST POINT, VA., March 27.—The contest in debating and reading between the West Point High School and the Gloucester County High School, which was held in the Masonic Hall auditorium on Friday evening, was a great success, and highly enjoyable. A full and appreciative house greeted the young people. The opening number on the program was a selection by the Gloucester Orchestra. In the reading contest, Miss Minnie Hogg, of Gloucester, read "The Soul of the Victor," by Charles Taylor, of West Point, read "Stations," then each read a selection by the Judges—John B. Terrell, John Gunn and Professor H. B. Hands, of Richmond. The decision was rendered in favor of West Point. Taylor, of West Point, a quartet, "Sweet and Low," by Mrs. J. W. Courtney, Mrs. R. B. Ware, Dr. Joseph E. Kelley and Mrs. J. W. Courtney came next in the contest. "Women's Suffrage," given the right to vote on the same basis as men, the negative side won—Miss Cornelia Hogg and Mr. Paul Gault, of the West Point High School. "A Slave," by George Washington Taylor, of West Point, was greatly enjoyed. "Dixie," accompanied by the Gloucester Orchestra, concluded the program. The presiding officers of the evening were Miss Lydia White, of Botetourt High School, and Miss Adelaide Leigh, of West Point. The winning side will go to the University of Virginia at Charlottesville to measure its strength with other contestants.

Louis Levin, of Baltimore, the only brother of the late Mrs. Ed. Morvitz, of West Point, sailed about ten days ago for Palestine, where he will assist as a special member of the relief committee in ministering to the suffering. Levin is one of the secretaries of the International Associated Charities. He has for several years been editor of the Jewish Community, published in Baltimore.

Francis Floyd Eubank, son of the late R. W. Eubank, stationed at Parkersburg, W. Va., the youngest traveling auditor of the Baltimore and Ohio Railway system, is also a thirty-second degree Mason. He has been invited to deliver the Maudsley Thursday address before the lodge at Parkersburg on April 1. Mr. Eubank is a relative of A. J. Montague, M. C.

Miss Elise Frazer, of Richmond, is a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Galt.

Rev. W. B. Billings, the pastor, will begin a series of revival services in the West Point Baptist Church the second Sunday in April. Rev. W. B. Gibson, pastor of the Baltimore and Ohio Church, Richmond, is also invited.

The announcement reached here this morning that Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Grasty, of Baltimore, Md., of the engagement of their daughter, Mary, to Dr. Roscoe R. Spencer, of West Point. Dr. Spencer is graduate of the University of Maryland and Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, and is now assistant surgeon in the United States Army. He has recently been appointed to the government to investigate the progress of "spotted fever," which devastated certain portions of the United States and adjoining States, and will be in the West about April 1. Dr. Spencer spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Eliza Roy Spencer, in Richmond.

Miss Cecily Thompson is spending several weeks at West Point. Her mother, Mrs. John McGraw, of Cleveland, Ohio, who spent the winter in West Point, will probably go farther South with her daughter.

Miss and Mrs. George W. Trice, of Hampton, visited Miss M. C. Price here last week and sold out the George E. Trice jewelry store.

Miss and Mrs. George W. Trice, of Hampton, visited Miss M. C. Price here last week and sold out the George E. Trice jewelry store.

Miss and Mrs. George W. Trice, of Hampton, visited Miss M. C. Price here last week and sold out the George E. Trice jewelry store.

Miss and Mrs. George W. Trice, of Hampton, visited Miss M. C. Price here last week and sold out the George E. Trice jewelry store.

Miss and Mrs. George W. Trice, of Hampton, visited Miss M. C. Price here last week and sold out the George E. Trice jewelry store.

Miss and Mrs. George W. Trice, of Hampton, visited Miss M. C. Price here last week and sold out the George E. Trice jewelry store.

Miss and Mrs. George W. Trice, of Hampton, visited Miss M. C. Price here last week and sold out the George E. Trice jewelry store.

Miss and Mrs. George W. Trice, of Hampton, visited Miss M. C. Price here last week and sold out the George E. Trice jewelry store.

Miss and Mrs. George W. Trice, of Hampton, visited Miss M. C. Price here last week and sold out the George E. Trice jewelry store.

Miss and Mrs. George W. Trice, of Hampton, visited Miss M. C. Price here last week and sold out the George E. Trice jewelry store.

Miss and Mrs. George W. Trice, of Hampton, visited Miss M. C. Price here last week and sold out the George E. Trice jewelry store.

Miss and Mrs. George W. Trice, of Hampton, visited Miss M. C. Price here last week and sold out the George E. Trice jewelry store.

Miss and Mrs. George W. Trice, of Hampton, visited Miss M. C. Price here last week and sold out the George E. Trice jewelry store.

Miss and Mrs. George W. Trice, of Hampton, visited Miss M. C. Price here last week and sold out the George E. Trice jewelry store.

Miss and Mrs. George W. Trice, of Hampton, visited Miss M. C. Price here last week and sold out the George E. Trice jewelry store.

Miss and Mrs. George W. Trice, of Hampton, visited Miss M. C. Price here last week and sold out the George E. Trice jewelry store.

Miss and Mrs. George W. Trice, of Hampton, visited Miss M. C. Price here last week and sold out the George E. Trice jewelry store.

Miss and Mrs. George W. Trice, of Hampton, visited Miss M. C. Price here last week and sold out the George E. Trice jewelry store.

Fighting for Fame in Musical Circles

Miss North recently arrived in Washington from Yorkville, England, to continue her study of music, interrupted because of the war. Senator and Mrs. Tillman became interested in her and used their influence to secure audiences for her. Now she has been taken up by other influential Washington people, and her success in her search for a musical education seems assured. Mrs. Christian D. Hemmick, the famous society woman artist, is her latest patroness. Miss North has a pleasing contralto voice, which has charmed her Washington audiences.

Miss North recently arrived in Washington from Yorkville, England, to continue her study of music, interrupted because of the war. Senator and Mrs. Tillman became interested in her and used their influence to secure audiences for her. Now she has been taken up by other influential Washington people, and her success in her search for a musical education seems assured. Mrs. Christian D. Hemmick, the famous society woman artist, is her latest patroness. Miss North has a pleasing contralto voice, which has charmed her Washington audiences.

Miss North recently arrived in Washington from Yorkville, England, to continue her study of music, interrupted because of the war. Senator and Mrs. Tillman became interested in her and used their influence to secure audiences for her. Now she has been taken up by other influential Washington people, and her success in her search for a musical education seems assured. Mrs. Christian D. Hemmick, the famous society woman artist, is her latest patroness. Miss North has a pleasing contralto voice, which has charmed her Washington audiences.

Miss North recently arrived in Washington from Yorkville, England, to continue her study of music, interrupted because of the war. Senator and Mrs. Tillman became interested in her and used their influence to secure audiences for her. Now she has been taken up by other influential Washington people, and her success in her search for a musical education seems assured. Mrs. Christian D. Hemmick, the famous society woman artist, is her latest patroness. Miss North has a pleasing contralto voice, which has charmed her Washington audiences.

Miss North recently arrived in Washington from Yorkville, England, to continue her study of music, interrupted because of the war. Senator and Mrs. Tillman became interested in her and used their influence to secure audiences for her. Now she has been taken up by other influential Washington people, and her success in her search for a musical education seems assured. Mrs. Christian D. Hemmick, the famous society woman artist, is her latest patroness. Miss North has a pleasing contralto voice, which has charmed her Washington audiences.

Miss North recently arrived in Washington from Yorkville, England, to continue her study of music, interrupted because of the war. Senator and Mrs. Tillman became interested in her and used their influence to secure audiences for her. Now she has been taken up by other influential Washington people, and her success in her search for a musical education seems assured. Mrs. Christian D. Hemmick, the famous society woman artist, is her latest patroness. Miss North has a pleasing contralto voice, which has charmed her Washington audiences.

Miss North recently arrived in Washington from Yorkville, England, to continue her study of music, interrupted because of the war. Senator and Mrs. Tillman became interested in her and used their influence to secure audiences for her. Now she has been taken up by other influential Washington people, and her success in her search for a musical education seems assured. Mrs. Christian D. Hemmick, the famous society woman artist, is her latest patroness. Miss North has a pleasing contralto voice, which has charmed her Washington audiences.

Miss North recently arrived in Washington from Yorkville, England, to continue her study of music, interrupted because of the war. Senator and Mrs. Tillman became interested in her and used their influence to secure audiences for her. Now she has been taken up by other influential Washington people, and her success in her search for a musical education seems assured. Mrs. Christian D. Hemmick, the famous society woman artist, is her latest patroness. Miss North has a pleasing contralto voice, which has charmed her Washington audiences.

Miss North recently arrived in Washington from Yorkville, England, to continue her study of music, interrupted because of the war. Senator and Mrs. Tillman became interested in her and used their influence to secure audiences for her. Now she has been taken up by other influential Washington people, and her success in her search for a musical education seems assured. Mrs. Christian D. Hemmick, the famous society woman artist, is her latest patroness. Miss North has a pleasing contralto voice, which has charmed her Washington audiences.

Miss North recently arrived in Washington from Yorkville, England, to continue her study of music, interrupted because of the war. Senator and Mrs. Tillman became interested in her and used their influence to secure audiences for her. Now she has been taken up by other influential Washington people, and her success in her search for a musical education seems assured. Mrs. Christian D. Hemmick, the famous society woman artist, is her latest patroness. Miss North has a pleasing contralto voice, which has charmed her Washington audiences.

Miss North recently arrived in Washington from Yorkville, England, to continue her study of music, interrupted because of the war. Senator and Mrs. Tillman became interested in her and used their influence to secure audiences for her. Now she has been taken up by other influential Washington people, and her success in her search for a musical education seems assured. Mrs. Christian D. Hemmick, the famous society woman artist, is her latest patroness. Miss North has a pleasing contralto voice, which has charmed her Washington audiences.

Miss North recently arrived in Washington from Yorkville, England, to continue her study of music, interrupted because of the war. Senator and Mrs. Tillman became interested in her and used their influence to secure audiences for her. Now she has been taken up by other influential Washington people, and her success in her search for a musical education seems assured. Mrs. Christian D. Hemmick, the famous society woman artist, is her latest patroness. Miss North has a pleasing contralto voice, which has charmed her Washington audiences.

Miss North recently arrived in Washington from Yorkville, England, to continue her study of music, interrupted because of the war. Senator and Mrs. Tillman became interested in her and used their influence to secure audiences for her. Now she has been taken up by other influential Washington people, and her success in her search for a musical education seems assured. Mrs. Christian D. Hemmick, the famous society woman artist, is her latest patroness. Miss North has a pleasing contralto voice, which has charmed her Washington audiences.

Miss North recently arrived in Washington from Yorkville, England, to continue her study of music, interrupted because of the war. Senator and Mrs. Tillman became interested in her and used their influence to secure audiences for her. Now she has been taken up by other influential Washington people, and her success in her search for a musical education seems assured. Mrs. Christian D. Hemmick, the famous society woman artist, is her latest patroness. Miss North has a pleasing contralto voice, which has charmed her Washington audiences.

Miss North recently arrived in Washington from Yorkville, England, to continue her study of music, interrupted because of the war. Senator and Mrs. Tillman became interested in her and used their influence to secure audiences for her. Now she has been taken up by other influential Washington people, and her success in her search for a musical education seems assured. Mrs. Christian D. Hemmick, the famous society woman artist, is her latest patroness. Miss North has a pleasing contralto voice, which has charmed her Washington audiences.

Miss North recently arrived in Washington from Yorkville, England, to continue her study of music, interrupted because of the war. Senator and Mrs. Tillman became interested in her and used their influence to secure audiences for her. Now she has been taken up by other influential Washington people, and her success in her search for a musical education seems assured. Mrs. Christian D. Hemmick, the famous society woman artist, is her latest patroness. Miss North has a pleasing contralto voice, which has charmed her Washington audiences.

Miss North recently arrived in Washington from Yorkville, England, to continue her study of music, interrupted because of the war. Senator and Mrs. Tillman became interested in her and used their influence to secure audiences for her. Now she has been taken up by other influential Washington people, and her success in her search for a musical education seems assured. Mrs. Christian D. Hemmick, the famous society woman artist, is her latest patroness. Miss North has a pleasing contralto voice, which has charmed her Washington audiences.

Miss North recently arrived in Washington from Yorkville, England, to continue her study of music, interrupted because of the war. Senator and Mrs. Tillman became interested in her and used their influence to secure audiences for her. Now she has been taken up by other influential Washington people, and her success in her search for a musical education seems assured. Mrs. Christian D. Hemmick, the famous society woman artist, is her latest patroness. Miss North has a pleasing contralto voice, which has charmed her Washington audiences.

Miss North recently arrived in Washington from Yorkville, England, to continue her study of music, interrupted because of the war. Senator and Mrs. Tillman became interested in her and used their influence to secure audiences for her. Now she has been taken up by other influential Washington people, and her success in her search for a musical education seems assured. Mrs. Christian D. Hemmick, the famous society woman artist, is her latest patroness. Miss North has a pleasing contralto voice, which has charmed her Washington audiences.

Miss North recently arrived in Washington from Yorkville, England, to continue her study of music, interrupted because of the war. Senator and Mrs. Tillman became interested in her and used their influence to secure audiences for her. Now she has been taken up by other influential Washington people, and her success in her search for a musical education seems assured. Mrs. Christian D. Hemmick, the famous society woman artist, is her latest patroness. Miss North has a pleasing contralto voice, which has charmed her Washington audiences.

Miss North recently arrived in Washington from Yorkville, England, to continue her study of music, interrupted because of the war. Senator and Mrs. Tillman became interested in her and used their influence to secure audiences for her. Now she has been taken up by other influential Washington people, and her success in her search for a musical education seems assured. Mrs. Christian D. Hemmick, the famous society woman artist, is her latest patroness. Miss North has a pleasing contralto voice, which has charmed her Washington audiences.

Miss North recently arrived in Washington from Yorkville, England, to continue her study of music, interrupted because of the war. Senator and Mrs. Tillman became interested in her and used their influence to secure audiences for her. Now she has been taken up by other influential Washington people, and her success in her search for a musical education seems assured. Mrs. Christian D. Hemmick, the famous society woman artist, is her latest patroness. Miss North has a pleasing contralto voice, which has charmed her Washington audiences.

Miss North recently arrived in Washington from Yorkville, England, to continue her study of music, interrupted because of the war. Senator and Mrs. Tillman became interested in her and used their influence to secure audiences for her. Now she has been taken up by other influential Washington people, and her success in her search for a musical education seems assured. Mrs. Christian D. Hemmick, the famous society woman artist, is her latest patroness. Miss North has a pleasing contralto voice, which has charmed her Washington audiences.

Miss North recently arrived in Washington from Yorkville, England, to continue her study of music, interrupted because of the war. Senator and Mrs. Tillman became interested in her and used their influence to secure audiences for her. Now she has been taken up by other influential Washington people, and her success in her search for a musical education seems assured. Mrs. Christian D. Hemmick, the famous society woman artist, is her latest patroness. Miss North has a pleasing contralto voice, which has charmed her Washington audiences.

Miss North recently arrived in Washington from Yorkville, England, to continue her study of music, interrupted because of the war. Senator and Mrs. Tillman became interested in her and used their influence to secure audiences for her. Now she has been taken up by other influential Washington people, and her success in her search for a musical education seems assured. Mrs. Christian D. Hemmick, the famous society woman artist, is her latest patroness. Miss North has a pleasing contralto voice, which has charmed her Washington audiences.

Miss North recently arrived in Washington from Yorkville, England, to continue her study of music, interrupted because of the war. Senator and Mrs. Tillman became interested in her and used their influence to secure audiences for her. Now she has been taken up by other influential Washington people, and her success in her search for a musical education seems assured. Mrs. Christian D. Hemmick, the famous society woman artist, is her latest patroness. Miss North has a pleasing contralto voice, which has charmed her Washington audiences.

Miss North recently arrived in Washington from Yorkville, England, to continue her study of music, interrupted because of the war. Senator and Mrs. Tillman became interested in her and used their influence to secure audiences for her. Now she has been taken up by other influential Washington people, and her success in her search for a musical education seems assured. Mrs. Christian D. Hemmick, the famous society woman artist, is her latest patroness. Miss North has a pleasing contralto voice, which has charmed her Washington audiences.

Richmond to resume his work in the Chamberlain School.
Mayor W. L. Penick has issued a call to the business men of South Boston and others who are interested to meet in the City Hall on Monday night. The purpose of this call is to discuss the ways and means of organizing a Chamber of Commerce or Business Men's Association. Secretary H. B. Watkins, of the Danville Chamber of Commerce, and others have been invited to be present and address this meeting.

LAWRENCEVILLE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LAWRENCEVILLE, VA., March 27.—Mrs. E. R. Turnbull has returned from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Beaton, at Boykins, where she was called to be with her mother, who was quite sick.

Miss Virginia Duncanson, of Danville, is the guest of Mrs. Nat Turnbull on South Main Street.

Misses Phyllis Bayley and Emily Davis, who are teaching at South Hill, spent the week-end with Miss Bayley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Bayley on Windsor Avenue.

Miss Mary Hamlin has returned from an extensive visit to relatives in Petersburg, Richmond, Staunton and Norfolk.

Miss Bettie Tabb has returned to her home on South Main Street after a visit to relatives in Richmond and Newport News.

Mrs. Arthur Rawlings left Thursday for Richmond to visit Mrs. Allen Pettigrew.

Misses Lizzie Turnbull and May Tucker, who have been visiting Mrs. C. H. Schrell in Emporia, have returned to their homes.

Mrs. Burdette Lewis is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Fred Dabney, in Richmond.

Mrs. W. E. Elmore and little daughter, Mary Louise, are visiting Mrs. Elmore's sister, Mrs. Betty Turnbull, in Boykins.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Smith have returned from a visit to Richmond.

Miss Emma, of Blackstone, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. A. Brinkley, has returned to her home.

Mrs. Mary Armistead Mason is on an extended visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ravenscroft Jones, near Lawrenceville.

Miss Temperance Legion will meet on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Presbyterian Church. Rev. Mr. Lucas, who has been a missionary to China, will address the legion.

Alma's Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will observe the anniversary of the battle of Shiloh at the chapter-rooms in the M. I. C. Building April 6, beginning at 8 o'clock.

A feature of which will be the presentation of a life-size sepia reproduction of the Virginia Military Institute, portrait of the boy major of the Confederacy, Joseph W. Latimer, to the Manassas High School. A social hour and refreshments will complete the program.

The Prince William County Board of Supervisors will meet in regular session at the courthouse here on Thursday.

The Manassas Town Council will meet in regular monthly session at the People's Bank Building on Monday night.

Under the auspices of the Northern Methodist Church a delightful box party was held at the home of G. D. Hiner, near Manassas, on Tuesday evening. Refreshments were well attended by Manassas people.

Rev. E. A. Roads, of the Southern Methodist Church, of Manassas, and Rev. and Mrs. Simmons left on Tuesday for Washington to attend the annual Methodist conference.

Dr. and Mrs. S. S. Simpson, of Clarendon, formerly of Manassas, visited friends and relatives here this week.

Police Robertson, student at Virginia Polytechnic Institute, was a Manassas visitor this week on his way to his home at Delaplane.

W. W. Smith and family, of Rockingham, N. C., were guests at the Prince William Hotel on Monday.

E. D. Laws, proprietor of the Afton Inn, at Front Royal, was the guest of R. W. Payne on Sunday.

Mrs. Dennis O'Neill and daughter, Miss Betsy O'Neill, were Alexandria visitors on Sunday.

Miss Mary H. Lipacomb returned on Saturday from Washington, where she visited friends.

Miss Julia Stevens, of Washington, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Gordon until after Easter.

A Junior Sewing Club, whose membership is composed of several of the "Little Ladies," has recently been organized in Manassas, and from now on will hold its regular weekly meetings.

Frank Faulstich has returned to

Richmond to resume his work in the Chamberlain School.

Mayor W. L. Penick has issued a call to the business men of South Boston and others who are interested to meet in the City Hall on Monday night.

The purpose of this call is to discuss the ways and means of organizing a Chamber of Commerce or Business Men's Association.

Secretary H. B. Watkins, of the Danville Chamber of Commerce, and others have been invited to be present and address this meeting.

Miss Virginia Duncanson, of Danville, is the guest of Mrs. Nat Turnbull on South Main Street.

Misses Phyllis Bayley and Emily Davis, who are teaching at South Hill, spent the week-end with Miss Bayley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Bayley on Windsor Avenue.

Miss Mary Hamlin has returned from an extensive visit to relatives in Petersburg, Richmond, Staunton and Norfolk.

Miss Bettie Tabb has returned to her home on South Main Street after a visit to relatives in Richmond and Newport News.

Queen of Greece. Is Kaiser's Sister

The Queen of Greece

Reports to the effect that Greece may at any moment enter the war on the side of the allies seem to have much truth in back of them. The present deadlock between King Constantine and many of his advisers as to intervention in the war on the allied side is that he has felt under some obligations to Germany for family and political relations. If war should be declared, an odd and extremely ironic situation would arise for the Queen of the Hellenes. She was formerly the Princess Sophie of Prussia, sister of the Kaiser, and she would, in a way, be forced to help bring about the defeat of her own brother.

Last week the club members were the guests of little Miss Dorothy Sheldon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bayard Sheldon at her home on West street, for the first meeting. After the sewing the young hostess served refreshments. Among others who are members are Misses Helen Cannon, Muriel Larkin, Katherine Weir and Virginia Speldon.

Waller Sanford has returned to Washington and Lee after a brief stay at home.

W. E. England was in Richmond this week to consult Dr. Johnson.

Revival services, which began on March 14, are still being conducted in the Methodist church by the Rev. Guy H. Newbury.

W. W. Smith and family, of Rockingham, N. C., were guests at the Prince William Hotel on Monday.

E. D. Laws, proprietor of the Afton Inn, at Front Royal, was the guest of R. W. Payne on Sunday.

Mrs. Dennis O'Neill and daughter, Miss Betsy O'Neill, were Alexandria visitors on Sunday.

Miss Mary H. Lipacomb returned on Saturday from Washington, where she visited friends.

Miss Julia Stevens, of Washington, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Gordon until after Easter.

A Junior Sewing Club, whose membership is composed of several of the "Little Ladies," has recently been organized in Manassas, and from now on will hold its regular weekly meetings.

Frank Faulstich has returned to

Richmond to resume his work in the Chamberlain School.

Mayor W. L. Penick has issued a call to the business men of South Boston and others who are interested to meet in the City Hall on Monday night.

The purpose of this call is to discuss the ways and means of organizing a Chamber of Commerce or Business Men's Association.

Secretary H. B. Watkins, of the Danville Chamber of Commerce, and others have been invited to be present and address this meeting.

Miss Virginia Duncanson, of Danville, is the guest of Mrs. Nat Turnbull on South Main Street.

Misses Phyllis Bayley and Emily Davis, who are teaching at South Hill, spent the week-end with Miss Bayley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Bayley on Windsor Avenue.

Miss Mary Hamlin has returned from an extensive visit to relatives in Petersburg, Richmond, Staunton and Norfolk.

Miss Bettie Tabb has returned to her home on South Main Street after a visit to relatives in Richmond and Newport News.

Mrs. Arthur Rawlings left Thursday for Richmond to visit Mrs. Allen Pettigrew.

Misses Lizzie Turnbull and May Tucker, who have been visiting Mrs. C. H. Schrell in Emporia, have returned to their homes.

Mrs. Burdette Lewis is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Fred Dabney, in Richmond.

Mrs. W. E. Elmore and little daughter, Mary Louise, are visiting Mrs. Elmore's sister, Mrs. Betty Turnbull, in Boykins.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Smith have returned from a visit to Richmond.

Miss Emma, of Blackstone, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. A. Brinkley, has returned to her home.

annual session of the union this week at New York.

ARVONIA

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ARVONIA, VA., March 27.—Mrs. Charles W. Keel, who has been spending some time with friends and relatives in Richmond, returned here on Wednesday.

Miss Margaret Clements, of Scottsville, returned here this week to remain for two or three months.

Miss Mary Jackson, of Farmville, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Edward E. Roberts.

Miss Elizabeth Walker, of Bedford City, is here as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. Beckwith Hughes.

Mrs. Willie Ambler, who has been visiting relatives in Lynchburg, and her son, Professor Ambler, of Winston-Salem, N. C., returned to her home at "Seven Islands," on James River, this week.

Louise Green, of Surry County, is at Bruno Bluff for a stay of six or eight weeks. He will have charge of the high school at that place.

Mrs. Arthur Letcher Pitts spent several days in Richmond this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Roberts spent Saturday and Sunday in Farmville, motoring across the country in their car.

Alexander Williams motored to Charlottesville on Sunday, accompanied by Mrs. R. B. Hughes, Misses Elizabeth Walker, Ethel Hughes and Russell Hughes.

Mr. Crump, of Lynchburg, was a visitor here last week.

W. Henshaw Root, of Penan, spent the week-end here this week with Dr. John Robert Bagby.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stone, of Fluvanna County, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Lindsay Stone.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Graham Thoms, as motored to Charlottesville on Tuesday, spending the day and returning home that night.

A. L. Pitts attended the funeral of the late George William Briggs in Richmond on Monday.

Senator Sands Gayle and Superintendent Twyman attended the debate at the high school here on Saturday.

The county school fair will be held at Ellwyn on April 9. Quite a number of children from this section will attend.

Rev. Plummer F. Jones will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Filpen, of Cumberland, on Saturday and Sunday. He will occupy the pulpit of Center Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning.

Dr. and Mrs. Perkins Glover entered

Richmond to resume his work in the Chamberlain School.

Mayor W. L. Penick has issued a call to the business men of South Boston and others who are interested to meet in the City Hall on Monday night.

The purpose of this call is to discuss the ways and means of organizing a Chamber of Commerce or Business Men's Association.

Secretary H. B. Watkins, of the Danville Chamber of Commerce, and others have been invited to be present and address this meeting.